

SCDNR Hunter's Education Course Offered in Cayce

The Cayce Department of Public Safety Community Services Unit is offering an opportunity for young hunters from the Cayce – West Columbia area to participate in the SCDNR Hunter's Education course. The first course will take place on Saturday, October 29, 2011 from 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM and will be held at the Cayce United Methodist Church at 1600 12th Street in Cayce.

The South Carolina Hunter's Education Course is a general hunting safety education course that is taught to hunters throughout the entire state. The curriculum used has been designed by the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources and is written on a sixth grade reading level. If students need additional assistance understanding the curriculum, assistance will be provided by an instructor at the student's request.

Currently the Cayce Department of Public Safety has two certified Hunter's Education instructors who will lead the class. The only age requirement is that if a student is under twelve (12) years of age, they must be accompanied by their parent or legal guardian. Students will be given a thirty (30) minute lunch break and the students must provide their own lunch.

To register for the class, go to the SCDNR website at www.dnr.sc.gov and click on the education bar. Then click on the Hunter's Education tab, go to instructor led classes, click on the class calendar. Go to the date on the calendar and scroll down to the class and click to register. Future courses in the City of Cayce will be scheduled and posted on the SC DNR web-site. Additional questions can be forwarded to the Cayce Department of Public Safety Community Services Unit at 803-739-0684.
