Museum Staff Report

Museum staff and volunteers are making progress on the NAGPRA inventory having recorded around 6,135 objects to date. The NAGPRA report work continues until all Native American Indian items are cataloged. The Soiree on State Street event had good attendance at the Museum booth.

Exhibits: The Columbia Airport Exhibit has been set up. The staff have requested to have a kiosk exhibit at the Columbia Airport. The Public Safety building needs additional funding for ongoing electrical issues. Language for the REV250 exhibit is currently being drafted by Commissioner Brinkman, Ms. Sue Kelly and Museum staff and the exhibit is expected to open in 2026.

Upcoming Events: Tartan Day South-Colonial Village will be April 5th. The Museum staff will have tables at both events and have asked Commissioners to volunteer if available. April 19th REV250 Event Committee hosting “Shot Heard ‘Round the World” Event at the Old Mill in Lexington, SC. Future events will include weaving and crocheting class, archeology day, artifact identification, Cayce Legends and Juneteeth event. Dates are TBA.
